

Privacy Policy

Last updated: 27 Feb 2026

We respect your privacy and are committed to protecting the personal information you provide. This Privacy Policy explains what we collect, how we use it, and your rights when you use our website.

Information We Collect

- a) Contact Form Data: First Name, Last Name, E-mail Address, Selected Subject, and your Message.
- b) Technical Data For Security: IP address is processed transiently to issue and verify a proof-of-work (PoW) challenge and to apply rate-limiting. This data is not persistently stored; it is kept only for a short window necessary to prevent abuse.
- c) Usage Data (Google Analytics, when enabled): Pages Visited, Time Spent, Referring URL, Device and Browser Details, and IP Address as processed by Google. See “Google Analytics” below for details and opt-out options.

How We Use Information

- a) Respond To Inquiries: Communicate with you and handle your request submitted via the contact form.
- b) Improve Services: Understand engagement and identify areas for improvement.
- c) Security and Anti-Abuse: Prevent spam and automated abuse using PoW and rate-limiting.
- d) Analytics: Understand trends and website performance (when Google Analytics is enabled).

Proof-of-Work CAPTCHA

- a) We use an in-house PoW challenge to prevent automated submissions. Your browser computes a small cryptographic puzzle and returns the solution.
- b) For integrity and abuse prevention, the PoW challenge is bound to your IP address and expires within minutes. We do not persist this data beyond the short validation window.

- c) No third-party CAPTCHA provider is involved.

Email Delivery

- a) When you submit the contact form, your message is relayed to our designated mailbox via our email service provider. The provider processes your name, email, subject, and message solely to deliver the email to us.
- b) We do not store form submissions in a database.

Cookies and Similar Technologies

- a) Essential/Functional: We use a cookie to remember your language preference (e.g., NEXT_LOCALE). This helps provide a consistent experience and does not track you across sites.
- b) Analytics Cookies (when enabled): Google Analytics may set cookies to measure usage and performance. See “Google Analytics” for opt-out options.
- c) You can control cookies through your browser settings. Disabling essential cookies may affect core functionality (e.g., language preference).

Google Analytics

- a) We use Google Analytics to better understand how users engage with our content and improve our services.
- b) Google Analytics collects information such as IP address, pages visited, time on page, referring URL, and device/browser details.

Opt-out options:

- a) Browser add-on: <https://tools.google.com/dlpage/gaoptout>.
- b) Mobile device settings: Use your device’s advertising settings.

For details on Google’s privacy practices, visit: <https://policies.google.com/privacy>.

Legal Basis for Processing (EEA users)

- a) Legitimate Interest: To respond to your inquiries, ensure site security, and prevent abuse.
- b) Consent: For non-essential analytics (Google Analytics), where required.

Data Retention

- a) Contact Emails: Retained in our mailbox for as long as necessary to handle your request and for reasonable record-keeping, unless you request deletion (subject to legal obligations).
- b) Security Data (PoW and rate-limit): Retained only for minutes to validate the challenge and enforce limits; not persisted long-term.
- c) Analytics Data: Retained per Google's policies and settings.

Sharing and Transfers

- a) We do not sell your personal information.
- b) We share data only with service providers necessary to operate the site (e.g., hosting, email delivery, analytics). These providers act on our behalf and follow contractual and legal obligations.
- c) If any provider stores or processes data outside your jurisdiction, appropriate safeguards are applied (e.g., Standard Contractual Clauses) where required.

Your Rights

- a) Access, rectification, erasure, restriction, portability (where applicable), and objection.
- b) Opt-out of analytics as described above.
- c) Withdraw consent at any time for consent-based processing.
